Agreement in Receiving Shelter Assistance

The beneficiary agrees to care for the house, to always keep it in good order, undertake repairs and improvement when needed.

The beneficiary cannot sell, lease or give it away except to children or next of kin who are in need.

If there is no longer any need of the house, for reason such as moving in with married children or transfer to another place, to inform the San Francisco Women's Association to decide on the use and ownership of the house.
